AT SKATING RINK PROMISES BIG AMUSEMENT.

Last night was the final practice

The rink is being put in shape to ing taken by the athletic element of the city. Although the game is new to the people of Ardmore, it will be found interesting to those who have not witnessed the before, there being enough of footbalt and baseball spirit in it to stir the blood of anyone who has a drop of sporting blood in their veins.

In regard to the game Captain Nelson said: "I am confident that we will win the game tonight, but I expect the score to be very close. Our forwards are in perfect shape and are great 'basket shooters' and our team work will be very hard to break." Captain Ramsey, when asked in regard to the game, said: "I do not think that there is any possibility of getting beaten. I do not think we will have any trouble in breaking up their plays and as far as basket throwing our forwards Graig is without peer on either side. If we can manage to keep the score close till the second half I do not think we will have any trouble with the Elks from there on as all along the line our men have the most endurance and strength.

Those who have in charge the sale A MILLION DOLLAR CORPORA of the tickets report a good sale and are expecting a good crowd. The Elks will be present to encourage New York, Jan. 11. A report that their team, the high school students
